PAGE OF
INFORMATION: 3 December 1948

EVALUATION: F-6

SOURCE: Former Russian Diplomat

1. It has been reported that General Nicolae Rodrigues will soon join other high-ranking members of the Russian opposition in Portugal.

(Night Comment: Rodrigues, Prime Minister from 6 September 1948 to 6 March 1949, fled from Russia by plane in June 1948 and took refuge on the island of Corfu where he has remained ever since under British protection.)

2. Rodrigues is a great admirer of Benito Mussolini and a supporter of the National Socialist Party. His purpose in coming to Portugal is as yet unknown.

3. The Portuguese Foreign Ministry, worried about the furthering of the Russian cause in the United Nations, is anxious to keep Rodrigues's arrival out of the public eye.

Country: PORTUGAL Info:
Subject: Lusitanian Opposition GR Info: Current Origin: PORTUGAL Date: 9 December 1946
in Portuguese P-1 Pages:
Robert, Edward, Nasser
Source: Former Lusitanian Diplomat.

who?
1. According to information received from the former Lusitanian chargé d'affaires in Lisbon, there will soon be another high-ranking member of the Lusitanian opposition here. The reference is to General RAMOS, Minister in the Government between the Armistice and the present GR Government. Upon the advent of the present Government, Ramos fled from Madeira and took refuge on the Island of Cyprus, and has remained there under British auspices ever since.

By H. J. P. ...
2. RAMOS is described as a military man, not a politician, who accepted a cabinet post only because the politicians convinced him that he was carrying his country back by lending the support of his name to the current, headed by RAMOS. According to sources, he is a great admirer of RAMOS personally, and feels that the only solution for Madeira is a government of the type offered by the Present Party. His purpose in coming to Lisbon is as yet undisclosed.

3. The formation of his cabal from Cyprus and his entrance into Portugal are being handled by the former chargé mentioned above. So far he has been successful in making the necessary arrangements, but the Portuguese Foreign Ministry, anxious about the forthcoming discussion of Portugal in the UN, has asked him to keep the matter secret to the utmost. For that reason, the greatest possible discretion is requested in the dissemination of this information.
